

Please do not do anything to lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. I used to be harrassed throughout the day and evening with annoying, intrusive calls. Now it is much more peaceful at home. I think that this law is extremely important to maintain a quality of life in the home. I wish that the same laws could be in effect for other intrusive forms of marketing, such as email. Please do not give in to the pressure of instrusive telemarketers in Indiana.